“ I will miss my precious friend. She had a heart full of love for God, Christ and the Holy Spirit— she loved her precious daughter Karen. Her Sons and their wives and her dear little grandchildren— we shared the love of God and his word. It was the anchor of our souls — Goodnight my kind, loving friend— I will be looking forward to seeing you just inside the gate— and we will walk and talk with God and thank Him once again for all our blessings.

“ Sharon was such a lovely lady, and though we had met just a few months before, she was so friendly that I felt that we had been friends forever. God bless to the family and may you always remember her great smile and kind ways. Sincerely, LaDeen Sharver

“ To Jon & Family,
Sharon was a precious sister-in-law & a sister in Christ. I have so many wonderful memories of Sharon since meeting her on mine & Larry's wedding day, July 7, 1972. We had many Bible studies together when we visited. The Bible was her focus to help her live a righteous life. Sharon's absence is greatly felt by her family & friends.
