

Sherry J. Hohmann

November 14, 1942 - July 26, 2023

Shyual Jannette Stewart, more commonly known as, “Nana Sherry” was born on November 14, 1942, in Sutter City, California to Elton and Betty Stewart. She passed away July 26, 2023, in Cordell, Oklahoma at the age of 80. Sherry attended Roosevelt Public Schools and Hobart Public Schools, where she graduated. Sherry married Darrell Hohmann, June 25, 1961. They had four children, daughter Terrie, daughter Carrie, son Darrin, and son Jarrod. She lived in Norman, Oklahoma for four years, moving back to Lone Wolf in 1968. While in Lone Wolf, she taught swimming and put on the annual “Water Show” until she retired in 1991. After retiring from Lone Wolf Schools, she worked at the Kiowa County Clerk’s office for many years. She absolutely loved the OU Sooners, and just sports in general. At the nursing home in Cordell, she would participate in the sports’ trivia questions, and would, of course, answer correctly. Up until her passing, she enjoyed watching the Sooners, specifically their softball team. Nana Sherry loved a 20 oz. Coke, and you would hardly ever see her without one in her purse. She always made sure to check in on her grandkids, and loved hearing about what they were up to. When she got older, she enjoyed checking on her loved ones on social media. She is survived by daughter Terrie LoBaugh, and husband Donnie of Weatherford, Oklahoma, son Darrin Hohmann of Hinton, Oklahoma, and son Jarrod Hohmann and wife Jennifer of Hinton, Oklahoma, five grandchildren, Evan, Lauren, Kenzie, Brynnley, and Owen, four great-grandchildren, Cross, Lejund, League, and Sloane and a host of other relatives and friends.

“ Terrie, Darrin & Jarrod,
I'm so sorry for your loss. I loved having Mrs.Hohmann as my swim teacher. I loved being part of the “Water Show” every year. I look back and don't know how she did that with kids from elementary school to high school participating. It was a big event every year in Lone Wolf with the pool packed and people standing in doorways.
She also taught us to get certified as lifeguards and I had one of my first real jobs lifeguarding at the church camp. I kept lifeguarding in summers different places and at the Norman Y part time into my 40's. Thanks to Mrs.Hohmann where it all started. Thought and prayers for you all.
