My favorite memory of Gina, was right after I first met her. They were living in the apartments and everyone congregated in their bedroom. I was laying on the end of the bed talking to her and stretched my leg, my foot (no shoes on, just socks) went into the fan (it didn't have a guard on it). Gina laughed so hard at me. Another memory was her helping my daughter come home to me. I will never forget you, Gina!!
