

Tammy Marie Young

August 29, 1973 - August 19, 2025

Tammy Marie (Bell) Young of Ponca City, Oklahoma, went home on August 19, 2025. Throughout life, Tammy honored strong ties to southwest Oklahoma and her Native American heritage. But her legacy is love. Forever remembered as a loving person and a good mom, Tammy's life reflected her favorite scripture passed from her grandma, Philippians 4:13, I can do all things through Christ who strengthens me. Tammy's love of people stems from this faith and touches her love of art, socializing, and adopting people as her own. Being with people brought Tammy such joy. The great loves of her life were her husband Steve and her boys Andy and Jesse. She remained close to several of Andy's high school friends, whom she called her adopted sons: Kevin Adams, Cory Anderson, Dylon Cheatwood, Dustin Strianese, and Kyle Swinford. Tammy also adopted Dustin's wife Jessica and two daughters, Cali Jo and Madison Lane, as her own. She collected friends she deemed sisters: Diania Kendall, Stacey Warner, Sharon Jones, and Tina Phillips. And her heart held many family members and other friends. Tammy was preceded in death by her son Andy, her "adopted" son Dylan, her dad Verlin Bell, her step-dad Don Jones, and other family and friends. Remaining on this world a while longer are her husband Steve, her son Jesse, her mom Frankie Jones, and a host of people whose lives she touched.

Still wanting to put more love in the world, Tammy hoped you'd send a donation to the Wounded Warriors Project, Gold Star Families, or your local humane society instead of sending her flowers.

“ I always thought of you as my “little sister” cousin. My heart breaks that you gone too soon. However my heart is full of happiness to you, for you are now with your precious son and other family again. I’m sad that you left behind a caring, faithful and loving husband and your other son and your mamma. Your earthly body just gave out, but not your Spirit,. Fly high my sweet cousin. Sending you all my love.
