July 25, 1960 - May 1, 2017

Tracy Leroy Cole passed from this life on May 1, 2017 in Altus at the age of 56. Tracy was born on July 25, 1960 in Oklahoma City to Francis D. Cole and Dorothy M. (Smith) Cole. He grew up in Blair and graduated from Blair High School. Tracy was a technician in the heating and air industry after receiving a degree in air conditioning repair from Okmulgee Technology School in 1983.

Tracy grew up as a military brat along with his two brothers, Jim and Greg. Throughout their childhood years, they created a lifetime of memories by causing mischief throughout the small town of Blair. You could find Tracy skiing the irrigation canals, cruising down country roads, or working on his motorcycle. After he became a father, he decided to share his interests of having fun outdoors with his two daughters, Vanessa and Emily. They spent many weekends together going on camping trips and boating around any lake they could find. He spent most of his adult life living and working in Oklahoma City where he was surrounded by friends from all different walks of life.

Tracy is survived by his mother Dorothy Cole of Blair, two daughters: Vanessa Cole of Edmond and Emily Franger and husband Peter also of Edmond, two brothers: Jim Cole of Oklahoma City and Gregg Cole and wife Laurie of Blair.
