“ One of my favorite William stories, Billy Don, Tracy Pryor and myself worked for William haling hay and anything he needed done. One Saturday morning William had hay in the field and we had a high school baseball game that afternoon. We got the hay in the barn and cleaned up to catch the bus to play at Hobart. Coach Nightingale heard about it and reminded us we had promised not to work on game day to stay fresh. After the game we lost William confronted the coach and said he was the reason the boys worked and it wasn't that much work. Also, pulled out a note pad and reminded the coach that the team got 3 hits and his boys got all 3, he added if you let me work the other 6 I'll get you 9 hits next time!
